Town of Olive Summer Day Camp

History:

The Olive Day Camp began in 1955 and was held in various places throughout the township. In the early 1960's the program was centralized at the Davis Park facility and soon after, the first pool was built for the Olive community. That pool remained in service until 2002 when a rehabilitation project was done to the entire Davis Park facility. In July of 2003 the Pete Tosi Memorial Pool opened providing a safe, clean and modern facility for the residents of the Town of Olive for many years to come.

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Olive Day Camp is to offer a safe and healthy environment for the children of the Olive community for the summer months to develop friendships, help promote good sportsmanship, to discover new activities and of course have fun!

Facility:

The Day Camp is held at the Davis Park complex where a large open pavilion is available as well as ample open field space, basketball court and recently updated playground area. Also at the facility, is a modern swimming facility offering a non-swimmer area and 4, 5 and 6ft. swimming areas. The pool complex is a Junior Olympic sized pool and has a modern clean bathroom and shower area.

The entire complex is inspected by the Ulster County Board of Health and is maintained by the Town of Olive. The Davis Park campus and pool facility is closed to the public during day camp hours. This is to ensure the safety and security of the campers.

Staffing information:

The day camp staff is a combination of adults, college students and high school students. The adults on the staff are teachers, teacher's assistants or individuals qualified to work with children. A minimum of two people on site are trained and certified for basic first aid and CPR.

Busing:

The Olive Day Camp has contracted the services of a transportation company based out of the local area. The transportation company has been providing safe transportation for years to the Ontario School district. Contact the Recreation Director if you require further information about busing.

Lunch:

Every child should bring a "sack lunch" that does not require refrigeration. Your child should also bring with them plenty to drink for the day. If you choose to send a small cooler have the camper's name clearly marked on it. On occasion an ice cream truck will come to the camp around 1:00pm. Your child may purchase items from this vendor ranging in price from $2.50 to $4.00. If in fact the camper does have money, he/she should keep it properly secured at all times. The camp can not be held responsible for lost or stolen money.

Clothing:

Please send your child with weather appropriate clothing and shoes that provide protection from tree roots, blacktop, grass and gravel. Children should also bring swimming clothes and a towel as well. All clothing and towels should have the campers name written on it. A "lost and found" container will be located at the facility near the main office.

Off-site trips:

The Olive Day Camp may take the campers on short field trips to a local stream, library or other local venues. These trips are offered to all of the campers for either no or very small fee.

During the six-week day camp swimming instruction is offered to children wanting to improve upon their swimming skills. During the afternoon hours {12:15pm -2:30pm} the pool is available for free swim for all children of the day camp. It is encouraged that all children go into the pool to keep cool during the very warm days at day camp. During the six-week day camp {Mon.-Thurs. 10-3} the pool facility is closed to the public.

Cancellation or early Dismissal:

Because the Olive Day Camp is held primarily outdoors and the only shelter available is an open pavilion, weather conditions either cause camp to be cancelled for the day or dismissed early. Please insure you read the policy noted below for these types of events so you can plan accordingly for that day.

In the event that Day Camp may be cancelled due to inclement weather, a recorded message will be put on the Olive Rec. Phone {657-6920} at 8:00am. The cancellation or early dismissal will also be posted on Cancellations.com and be announced on radio station 100.1 WDST.

Weather conditions during the summer months can and will change very quickly and the possibility exists that the day camp staff may have to dismiss the children early from camp. You should know that if camp is in session and the weather begins to change, every attempt will be made to keep the children at the camp for the entire time frame. In the event that the weather does not clear up in a reasonable period of time, the following procedure will take place to keep the children safe and returned home.

- The on-site staff will sound the emergency horn and all of the campers will be gathered under the pavilion.
- Each group leader will take attendance for his/her group to ensure that each camper is accounted for.
- The Camp Director and Asst. Camp Director will instruct the on-site staff of the weather conditions and determine if the camp will stay in session or have an early dismissal.
- If a decision is made to dismiss early, the following procedures will be followed.
 - a. The transportation company will be called and notified of the dismissal.
 - b. The transportation company will give a time that the buses can be at the park for an early dismissal.
 - c. Once that time has been determined the radio station will be called {100.1} to make the announcement as soon as possible.
 - d. A pre- recorded message will be placed on the Rec. Phone 657-6570 stating the time of the early dismissal.
 - e. The Town of Olive Town Clerks office {657-2320} and Town Supervisors office {657-8118} will also be notified of the early dismissal. Also, you may go on line to Cancellations.com for information
 - f. The Day Camp phone {657-6373} will be used to make phone calls to parents of the children who walk or are driven to camp by private vehicle.
 - g. Those children will remain at the camp with at least {2} staff members until the parent/guardian arrives to pick them up.
- Once the buses arrive at the park, the children will be boarded on to the buses and the drivers will be instructed of any changes on their routes for dropping off children at different stops due to the early dismissal.

We understand that getting the information is sometimes difficult and that is why we are offering additional phone numbers to call if the weather is questionable and may cause an early dismissal of the camp.
