

Short Environmental Assessment Form Part 1 - Project Information

A narrative description of the intent of the proposed action and the environmental resources that may be affected in the municipality.

The intent is to subdivide my land into two lots and then build a small, energy efficient house on one lot. I plan to sell the lot that has two existing houses. I don't believe that any affect on existing environmental resources in the municipality.